Session Report - August 2019

The Session met on August 18 and welcomed new members Noel Hoffman and Susan Shumaker. Lee Mullett and Barry McMillan also began their second consecutive three-year terms.

John Bolt is now serving as Clerk of Session, and we thank Lucas fathom for his service as Clerk of Session over the past year. Lucas has shifted his role to serve as Session rep on Nurture & Learning Committee.

Some of the highlights from Session are:

- Approved a Letter of Transfer for Brian and Mary Ann McDonald to join our church from Davis Memorial PC (Elkins)
- Approved Baptisms of Finn Weber (Sept. 22) and Madison Misfeldt (Oct. 20)
- Approved the LGBTQ Task Force Diversity Week Event - Still, They Resisted on Sept. 15 at 6:30pm in the sanctuary.
- Approved the Scholastic Book Fair for the week of Sept. 15-20
- Appointed a temporary Task Force to prioritize Crisis/Active Shooter Response Plan for the church and PCDC
- Agreed to plan to support Chris Mullett in the ordination process with an interview at our Sept. 22 meeting.
- Zac shared personal news and a Letter to the Congregation.
- Received an update on the Parlor Renovation from Lee Mullett.
- Agreed to begin discussing a process for a 'Navigation Planning' process. This Session will begin praying and thinking about where God is calling our congregation to focus in the next 3 years, 5 years, 10 years.

Congregation Members and Friends are always welcome at Session meetings or to write and share any news or questions with Session. All correspondence can be sent to our Clerk of Session, John Bolt (jboltwv@johnbolt.com).
